The relevant competent tax authority has entered into a number of inter-governmental agreements to share tax information, where applicable, with the tax authorities in other territories. The requirement to collect information about each customer's tax residence and nationality is part of domestic legislation and as a financial services company we are legally obliged to collect it. We are asking for your tax residency, tax identification number/tax reference number (where applicable) and nationality and will record this information on our records.

The information that we will report to the competent tax authority is:

- Your name, address, jurisdiction of tax residence, tax identification number/tax reference number and date of birth
- Your Friends Provident International policy/contract number
- The balance or value of your account/policy at the end of the calendar year or at the date the policy/contract was surrendered/encashed
- The sum of any withdrawals taken within the relevant reporting year.

If you are unsure of your nationality, tax residency or citizenship status, or have any questions regarding tax, you should seek advice from an appropriately qualified adviser, or visit the tax authority website for that territory.

Friends Provident International is unable to advise on these matters and cannot be held responsible for incorrect information provided in this self-certification and any consequences of this.

If there is insufficient space on this form to provide all your details, please supply this information on a separate sheet and send it back to us attached to this form.

Declaration

I agree to notify Friends Provident International immediately if any of this information changes in the future.

I understand that information collected or held by Friends Provident International Limited (FPIL) whether contained in this certification or otherwise is provided and may be held, used or disclosed to other members of FPIL including subsidiaries. I understand that FPIL may be required by law to transfer information to relevant tax authorities anywhere in the world and that this transfer will be done without any further prior notification.

I declare that the information provided in this form is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, accurate and complete.

I am aware that deliberate tax evasion is a criminal offence. I am responsible for my own tax affairs and I hereby declare that I understand my personal tax obligations and responsibilities and I have complied with all legal requirements to make declarations to tax authorities and pay the tax that I owe. As appropriate and necessary I have taken, or will take, legal advice in relation to my tax affairs and in particular, my tax obligations as they apply to this application.
