SUB-FUND SUITABILITY

WHO IS THE SUB-FUND SUITABLE FOR?

The ILP Sub-Fund is only suitable for investors who seek total investment return consisting of interest income, capital appreciation and currency gains; seek to invest in debt securities of issuers located throughout Asia; and plan to hold their investment for the medium to long term.

It is important to remember that, as with most investments, the value of your investments are not guaranteed and can go down as well as up. Therefore we suggest that you only invest money that can be committed for the medium to long term. You should also bear in mind that securities held within a fund may not be denominated in the currency of that fund, so unit prices may fall purely on account of exchange rate fluctuations.

Please note that Friends Provident International Limited (FPIL) investment products are intended for medium to long term investment and are not therefore designed for early surrender. If you do surrender early, a product surrender charge may be applied. Please note that the earlier you terminate your plan, the more you may lose.

KEY FEATURES OF THE SUB-FUND

WHAT ARE YOU INVESTING IN?

You are investing in an ILP Sub-Fund that invests in the Franklin Templeton Investment Funds – Templeton Asian Bond Fund* ("the Fund" or "underlying fund"), apart from a proportionately small amount which may be held in cash to optimise dealing efficiencies in the underlying fund. We endeavour to maintain a cash balance limit of up to 0.75%.

The underlying fund of the ILP Sub-Fund is an accumulation fund, which means the fund will automatically reinvest any dividends.

*The underlying Fund is a Sub-Fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds ("FTIF"). FTIF is an Open-Ended Investment Company incorporated in Luxembourg and its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF).

- Refer to the 'Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies' section of the underlying fund's Luxembourg Prospectus for further information on the features of the Fund.

KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? -The value of an investment is not guaranteed and can go up and down depending on performance. You could get back less than you have paid in. At times, the ILP Sub-Fund (subject to the Appointed Actuary's agreement and provisions allowed for in the Policy Conditions) may need to change the way its price is calculated, to ensure that those moving into and out of the ILP Sub-Fund are treated fairly. This can have a negative effect on the ILP Sub-Fund's price and performance. -Fund managers have the ability, in exceptional circumstances, to suspend trading in their funds for as long as necessary. Market and Credit Risks

Interest Rate Risks: Movements in interest rates in the Asian markets may negatively affect the value of the Fund's investments in debt securities. Debt securities with longer-term maturities tend to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than shorter-term securities.

Issuer Credit Risks: If an issuer fails to make principal and interest payments when due, the value of your investment in such issuers will be adversely affected. This Fund invests principally in government securities where there is generally less risk of default than in the case of corporate securities.

The Fund may invest in low-rated, unrated or Non-Investment Grade debt securities or instruments. Such investments may fluctuate significantly, more so than Investment Grade securities, and there is a greater likelihood that the issuer may default, subjecting your investment to losses.

Chinese Market Risks: Investing in China involves a greater risk of loss than investing in more developed markets due to, among other factors, greater political, tax, economic, foreign exchange, liquidity, market volatility (such as interest rate and price volatility) and regulatory risks.

Emerging Market Risks: Investments in emerging markets involve certain risks such as currency fluctuations and economic and political uncertainties. These markets are generally smaller in size and have less liquidity than developed markets.

Currency Movement Risks: Securities held by the Fund may be denominated in currencies different from its base currency. The Fund may seek to Hedge currency exposures or take a currency position for investment purposes, exposing your investments to losses if currencies move against these positions.

-Refer to the 'Risks' section of the relevant Product Summary for further information.

Liquidity Risks

Liquidity Risks: The Fund may not be able to easily sell its securities during an economic event or due to deterioration in the creditworthiness of issuers in which it invests.

Product-Specific Risks

Derivative Risks: The Fund may invest in Derivatives, which may be purchased on regulated markets or over-the-counter and may have less liquidity than conventional assets, exposing the Fund to higher risks and potential losses. The Fund may invest in Structured Products and Derivatives such as Credit Default Swaps, Total Return Swaps, interest rate, index or Foreign Exchange Swaps, futures, forwards, and options, all of which are subject to significant liquidity and counterparty risks.

This figure may vary from year to year. The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of the underlying ILP Sub-Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
