SUB-FUND SUITABILITY

WHO IS THE SUB-FUND SUITABLE FOR?

-The ILP Sub-Fund is only suitable for investors who understand the risks including the risks of capital loss, and; seek long-term capital growth through exposure to global equity markets; seek a growth style investment approach; are looking to use it as part of an investment portfolio and not as a complete investment plan.

Investors should consult their financial advisors on the suitability of the ILP Sub-Fund for them if in any doubt.

It is important to remember that, as with most investments, the value of your investments are not guaranteed and can go down as well as up. Therefore we suggest that you only invest money that can be committed for the medium to long term. You should also bear in mind that securities held within a fund may not be denominated in the currency of that fund, so unit prices may fall purely on account of exchange rate fluctuations.

Please note that Friends Provident International Limited (“FPIL”) investment products are intended for medium to long term investment and are not therefore designed for early surrender. If you do surrender early, a product surrender charge may be applied. Please note that the earlier you terminate your plan, the more you may lose.

We endeavour to maintain a cash balance limit of up to 0.75%.

-The underlying fund of the ILP Sub-Fund is an accumulation fund, which means the fund will automatically reinvest any dividends.

*This fund is an open-ended investment company constituted under the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, which is organised as a société anonyme under the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and qualifies as a société d’investissement à capital variable and a UCITS.

-Refer to paragraphs 1 (THE FUND) and 2 (THE SUB-FUNDS) and the relevant Appendix (Global Growth Fund) of the underlying fund’s Singapore prospectus for further information on the features of the Fund.

Key Risks

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT?

-The value of an investment is not guaranteed and can go up and down depending on performance. You could get back less than you have paid in. At times, the ILP Sub-Fund may, subject to the Appointed Actuary's agreement and provisions allowed for in the Policy Conditions, need to change the way its price is calculated, to ensure that those moving into and out of the ILP Sub-Fund are treated fairly. This can have a negative effect on the ILP Sub-Fund's price and performance.

-Fund managers have the ability, in exceptional circumstances, to suspend trading in their funds for as long as necessary. When this occurs we will need to delay the 'cashing in' or switching of units in the relevant fund. You may not be able to access your money during this period.

-Because the Fund is aggressively managed, volatility may be high as the Fund may take larger position sizes, may have high turnover of holdings and at times may have a significant exposure to certain areas of the market.

-The Fund may have a higher volatility to its net asset value due to its investment policy when compared to funds investing in global markets, with broader investment policies and/or are a less volatile asset class.

-These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment:

Further Information

-Refer to the 'Valuations and Pricing' section of your Policy Conditions for further information.

-Refer to Risk Descriptions and the relevant Appendix (Global Growth Fund) of the underlying fund's Singapore prospectus for further information on the risks of the Fund.

-Refer to the 'Risks' section of the relevant Product Summary for further information.

Market and Credit Risks

Market risk: The value of equity securities may go down as well as up in response to the performance of individual companies and general market conditions.

-Emerging markets may be subject to increased political, regulatory and economic instability, less developed custody and settlement practices, poor transparency and greater financial risks. Emerging market currencies may be subject to volatile price movements. Emerging market securities may also be subject to higher volatility and lower liquidity than non emerging market securities.

-The Fund may be concentrated in industry sectors and/or countries and as a result, may be more volatile than more broadly diversified funds. The Fund is hence exposed to the risks of concentration.

-The Fund may invest in securities of smaller companies which may be less liquid, more volatile and tend to carry greater financial risk than securities of larger companies.

Currency risk: Movements in currency exchange rates can adversely affect the return of your investment. The currency hedging that may be used to minimise the effect of currency fluctuations may not always be successful.

-Where a purchase involves a foreign exchange transaction, it may be subject to the fluctuations of currency values.

-The Fund may invest in assets denominated in any currency and currency exposure may not be hedged for the shares on offer in Singapore. In addition, the net asset value of the USD denominated Share Class is not denominated in SGD. Accordingly, foreign currency exchange rate movements are likely to influence your returns, and you may be exposed to exchange rate risks.

Hedging risk: Any measures that the Fund takes that are designed to offset specific risks could work imperfectly, might not be feasible at times, or could fail completely. The Fund can use hedging within its portfolio to mitigate currency, duration, market or credit risk, and, with respect to any designated Share Classes, to hedge either the currency exposure or the effective duration of the Share Class. Hedging involves costs, which reduce investment performance

Liquidity Risks

Liquidity risk: There may be occasions when the manager is unable to sell some or all of the shares within the Fund, which could delay payment or redemption of proceeds.

-If the total requests for redemptions and switches out of the underlying fund on any Luxembourg dealing day exceeds 10% of the total value of shares in issue of the underlying fund, the Management Company reserves the right to defer any redemption or switch requests in excess of 10% until the next Luxembourg dealing day or days until completion of the original requests. This may in turn affect the ILP Sub-Fund.

Product-Specific Risks

Derivatives risk: The Fund may, within its prescribed limits, invest in financial derivative instruments for hedging purposes and for Efficient Portfolio Management.

-Participation in certain financial derivative instruments involves risks of a type, level or nature to which the Fund would not ordinarily be subject to.

-In an extreme scenario, investments made through derivative transactions may cause the investor to lose his entire principal amount invested.

These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
